

SUMMER ART 2017

At Glens Falls School District

Entering Grades 6 - 12

The following courses are offered by the Glens Falls School District Art Department and will be taught by Art faculty during July and August. Children entering grades 6-12 from any district are invited to register. Classes are held Monday through Thursday, 9:00 to 11:00 AM. Tuition cost is $50 per course. Enrollment will be based on a first come, first served basis and have a minimum number of 12 students per course. Payments are non-refundable after June 30th. Please contact Karen Mars at kmars@gfsd.org or call 792-6564 with any questions or concerns.

POTTERY: OPEN STUDIO

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Students have the freedom to work on their own ideas, use the potter's wheel or create the "project of the day". Projects are based on slab, coil and sculptural construction and chosen by student interest.

Examples include textured slab plates and platters, coil bowls, dragons and Chia pets, garden sun, moon and gargoyles.

Due to the drying and firing processes, two or three projects will be created the first three days and painted the fourth day. Firings will occur during the weekend and final pieces will be available to pick up the week following each course.

Pottery is offered for one or two weeks Monday to Thursday,
July 24-27 and/or July 31-August 3.
